This week the children have loved getting to know our new topic 'Moon Zoom' We have been learning and writing facts about the planets, drawing a 'favourite snacks' bar graph and creating a digital graph! We have also started learning the story of St David and what made him special.

Next week there is a whole school STEM (science, technology, engineering and maths) week. Our class will have a focus on food, how and why we refrigerate some, we will carry out a mouldy bread experiment and also have some visitors from Lego, helping us with an engineering challenge!

Have a great weekend!
